

BUSINESS & POLITICAL ECONOMY PROGRAM (BPEP-SHU)

BPEP-SHU 238 International Economics (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The course examines both macro and micro aspects of globalization. This course begins with the theory and practice of international trade: comparative advantage, trade policy and trade agreements as well as economies of scale, intra-industry trade, global value chains and offshoring. The course also studies the effects of China's integration into the world economy and the impact of US-Sino trade war and Brexit. The second part of the course covers the role of money and finance in the global economy, including international tax arbitrage and tax havens, the role of the exchange rate, interest parity, the determinants of exchange rates; exchange rate regimes, and international financial crises. Prerequisite: Introductory Macroeconomics (ECON-SHU 1 or ECON-SHU 251) and Introductory Microeconomics (ECON-SHU 3). Fulfillment: Economics Elective.

BPEP-SHU 9045 The China Business Experience (0 Credits)

China Business Experience is a non-credit, pass/fail mini-course specifically designed for BPE students while study away in Shanghai in Spring 2019. It aims to help the students to gain practical information and experience on China business. Focus will be placed on the political and institutional contexts within which business activities unfold so the students can understand the complexities associated with business ecosystem and practices in China. This special BPE-oriented course will consist of two lectures and two company visits where students will meet with business executives. Attendance is mandatory for this Pass/Fail course. If students miss one (or more) class or company visit, they will not pass the course.
