GLOBAL TRIP (DBIN-GB)

DBIN-GB 3100 DBi: Location TBA (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3103 DBi Argentina (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3110 DBi Costa Rica: Sustainable Business in Latin America (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3111 DBi Italy (Luxury Retail & Branding) (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3112 DBi Ireland (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3113 DBi Hungary / Central and Eastern Europe (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3115 DBi Spain (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3116 DBi Poland / Central and Eastern Europe (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3117 DBi Spain (Barcelona) (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3118 DBi Morocco & North Africa (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3119 DBi Colombia & Latin America (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3120 DBi Germany (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

DBIN-GB 3121 DBi Mexico (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

DBIN-GB 3122 DBi Copenhagen (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

DBIN-GB 3123 DBi Israel (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

DBIN-GB 3124 DBi France (1.5 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

DBIN-GB 3301 Doing Business in Chile (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

Grad: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No
DBIN-GB 3302 Doing Business in Copenha (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3303 DBi Argentina (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3304 DBi Australia (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3305 DBi China (Beijing & Shanghai) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3306 Doing Business in Korea (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3307 DBi China (Hong Kong) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No
DBIN-GB 3308  DBi India (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://
nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3309  DBi Asia (Singapore) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business
specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://
nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3310  DBi India (Bangalore) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business
specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://
nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3311  DBi Brazil (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business
specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://
nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3312  DBi Istanbul: the Economic, Political and Cultural Crossroads of the World (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business
specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://
nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3313  DBi New Zealand (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally
The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business
specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://
nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.
Grading: Grad Stern Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No
DBIN-GB 3314 DBi Israel (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

---

DBIN-GB 3315 DBi Australia (Sydney) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

---

DBIN-GB 3316 DBi China (Shanghai) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

---

DBIN-GB 3317 DBi S. Africa (Johannesburg) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

---

DBIN-GB 3318 DBi South Africa (Cape Town) (3 Credits)
Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE’s CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE’s CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-(dbi)-program/.

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No