

INDEPENDENT READING COURSE (INDEP-GP)

INDEP-GP 1900 Independent Reading (0.5-9 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

1.5-3 credits. An independent reading must be proposed to, and approved and supervised by a full-time faculty member. Professors are not required to take on any student for an independent reading and may be more inclined in cases where the student defines her or his interest in a subject fairly precisely. Students must submit a reading list and agree to specific due dates for assignments with the faculty member supervising the independent reading. Once approved for an independent reading by a faculty member, students must email wagner.academicservices@nyu.edu for registration procedures.

Grading: Grad Wagner Graded
