

INST STUDY OF THE ANCIENT WRLD (ISAW-GA)

---

ISAW-GA 1000 Intro to Ancient Egyptian I (4 Credits)

Typically offered Fall

Introduction to hieroglyphics; readings in ancient Egyptian texts

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

ISAW-GA 1001 Intro to Ancient Egyptian II (4 Credits)

Typically offered Spring

This course, the second in a two-semester sequence, will introduce students to the Middle Egyptian (Classical) dialect of the ancient Egyptian language. Students will become familiar with the hieroglyphic writing system, as well as key elements of the grammar and vocabulary of Middle Egyptian.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

ISAW-GA 1002 Advanced Ancient Egyptian I (4 Credits)

Typically offered Fall

Advanced readings in ancient Egyptian texts.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

ISAW-GA 1003 Advanced Ancient Egyptian II (4 Credits)

Typically offered Spring

This course will focus on reading Middle Egyptian texts in a variety of genres. Special consideration will be given to the grammar of the texts, as well as the materiality and historical, cultural, and archaeological context.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

ISAW-GA 3002 Special Topics: (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

This research seminar will focus on a special topic within the field of Ancient Studies.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3003 Directed Study of The Ancient World (1-4 Credits)

Typically offered all terms

This directed study will focus on a special topic within the field of Ancient Studies.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3010 Special Topics: East Asia (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

This research seminar will focus on a special topic within the field of Ancient Studies in East Asia.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3012 Special Topics: (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

This research seminar will focus on a special topic within the field of Ancient Studies.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3013 Special Topics: (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

This research seminar will focus on a special topic within the field of Ancient Studies.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3018 Spec Tpcs: Ancient Near East (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

This research seminar will focus on a special topic within the field of Ancient Studies in the Near East.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3023 Special Topics in Digital Humanities for the Ancient World (4 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

This research seminar will focus on a special topic within the field of Digital Humanities for the Ancient World.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3024 Introduction to Digital Humanities for the Ancient World (4 Credits)

Typically offered Fall of odd numbered years

This course will introduce students to the use of digital tools and computational methods in the study of the ancient world.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

ISAW-GA 3030 Seminar on the Interconnected Ancient World: Themes (4 Credits)

These seminars examine important themes, such as irrigation and agriculture or the interplay of text and image, across various cultures and time periods, utilizing a variety of methodological approaches and lenses.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ISAW-GA 3031 Seminar on the Interconnected Ancient World: Periods (4 Credits)

These seminars identify key chronological units for which cross-cultural comparison and connection is particularly valuable and lead students to see the ancient Old World as a whole in that period. Rather than surveys of what was going on during these periods, the seminars are explorations of linkages, similarities, and differences.

Grading: GSAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes