

FOREIGN LANGUAGES (ITAL1-CE)

ITAL1-CE 2003 Italian Advanced Immersive Conversation and Culture (7 Credits)

Do you have a working knowledge of Italian? Have you taken some Italian instruction but want to maximize your time? This immersive, fast-paced learning program is designed to consolidate prior language acquisition and advance your Italian to a whole new level of proficiency. The emphasis on culture-based topics and conversation enhances the learning process, so that greater fluency is attained in a shorter period of time.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 7001 Culture and Language Bootcamp for Work and Study Abroad: Italian (4 Credits)

Are you traveling abroad for work or study? Whether you are spending a semester in Florence or going to Milan on business, gain the cultural competency and language skills to successfully navigate your new surroundings. This bootcamp series provides an intensive language and cultural experience to prepare you for a wide range of challenges, from professional to academic, formal to informal. Prior exposure to the language is recommended (but not required), as instruction is intense and fast paced, covering beginner to intermediate material. Classes focus on developing written and spoken language proficiency and preparing you for new social customs and practices, while you explore the region's culture through visits to museums and restaurants. Immerse yourself in a language and learn the skills to succeed in new academic or work settings in just three weeks.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 8001 Italian for Beginners Mini-Course: Part 1 (0 Credits)

This abbreviated introductory course is for beginners with little or no prior knowledge of Italian. Everyday expressions are introduced and immediately put to use in class through role-play situations and dynamic interactive drills. Everyone is expected to be an active participant, and individual needs are addressed. In five sessions, acquire knowledge of the fundamentals of the language that will allow you to achieve a minimum level of proficiency for basic communication.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 8003 Italian for Beginners Saturday Immersion: Part I (0 Credits)

This introductory short course is for beginners with no or little prior knowledge of Italian. Everyday expressions are introduced and immediately put to use in class through role-play situations and dynamic, interactive drills. Students are expected to be active participants, and individual needs are addressed. In three Saturdays, acquire knowledge of the fundamentals of the language, allowing a primary level of proficiency for basic communication.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9001 Italian I (0 Credits)

This course focuses on the pronunciation, vocabulary, useful expressions, and grammatical structures that allow for effective communication in Italian. Through a variety of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on interaction and participation, you'll build your vocabulary and fluency in the Italian language and your knowledge of Italian culture. Taught in Italian to the extent possible, this course is targeted to individual learners' skill levels and interests. With this dynamic and interactive instruction, gain the language skills to engage in conversations and develop listening skills in Italian. This course is best suited for learners at a beginner to high-beginner level. Registering at least two weeks prior to the course start date is highly recommended.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9002 Italian II (0 Credits)

This course focuses on strengthening the use of the present tense in daily life situations. Through a variety of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on interaction and participation, you will build your vocabulary and fluency on the Italian Language and your "how-to" when in Italy. Taught in Italian to the extent possible, this course is targeted to individual learners who want to improve their communication skills. With this dynamic and interactive instruction, you will become more comfortable in conversations and familiar with daily vocabulary such as when at the restaurant, at the supermarket, at the hotel etc. Activities provide greater opportunities to expand the range of your conversational ability. This course is best suited for learners who feels secure with the structure and use of the present tense and they need a little push to loosen up when speaking. Registering at least two weeks prior to the course start date is highly recommended.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9003 Italian III (0 Credits)

If you have a solid knowledge of Italian language basics (essential vocabulary, verb forms, and basic tenses), or if you have completed Level II or its equivalent, then this is the right course for you. Expand your vocabulary, master more complex grammatical structures, hone your pronunciation, and become a more confident speaker of Italian. Classes are conducted almost entirely in Italian.

Students are strongly encouraged to register by Wednesday, January 30, 2019 to help ensure a seat in the class. Please contact the Department of Foreign Languages at sps.foreignlanguages@nyu.edu with any questions, or call 212-998-7150 to register.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9005 Italian V (0 Credits)

This course is for students who have completed Italian IV, or for those who are familiar with all tenses and basic structures and vocabulary. The course focuses on strengthening speaking and listening skills while acquiring new vocabulary and idiomatic Italian. In class, discuss contemporary topics from the Internet and from print publications and write expositorys. This is an interactive class conducted entirely in Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9006 Italian VI (0 Credits)

This course is for students who are familiar with most aspects of Italian grammar and want to utilize more complex grammatical structures when speaking and writing. Expand vocabulary and bolster your spoken Italian skills in everyday communicative situations. The class is taught entirely in Italian so that you may improve your proficiency through exposure to the language being spoken at a native level and speed in a small group setting. Read newspaper articles and web pages in order to develop stronger reading skills. Work on your writing skills through assigned compositions and essays. Expand your vocabulary and learn to express doubts, emotions, and opinions about music, relationships, the environment, social issues, and technology. Express hypotheses, discuss various aspects of Italian lifestyle, and compare cultures. Recognize and understand the use of passato remoto, past conditional, and all aspects of the subjunctive mood. By the end of the course, you will have achieved an advanced-low level of proficiency on the ACTFL scale.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9011 Italian I and II (0 Credits)

Italian I and II

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9013 Italian: Three-Week Intensive I and II (0 Credits)

This course offers a solid introduction to the Italian language. In 51 hours of classroom instruction and six hours of guided field trips, learn the basic vocabulary and grammar and engage in elementary conversation. Through visits to Italian communities in New York City, practice the language, sample the cuisine, and experience the culture. This course is an excellent introduction for people who plan to travel to Italy or to participate in a study-abroad program.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9014 Italian: Three-Week Intensive III and IV (0 Credits)

This course is suitable for those who have completed Italian II in this department, or who have taken a semester of college-level Italian at another institution. The course combines 51 hours of classroom instruction with six hours of guided field trips. Expand your vocabulary, enrich your grammatical resources, and develop your conversational skills. Practice the language and experience the culture through visits to Italian neighborhoods in New York City.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9015 Italian: Accelerated I and II (0 Credits)

If you have previously studied Italian and want to review the basics, or if you have a strong knowledge of a cognate language, then this class is an appropriate next step in your study of Italian. This fast-paced course condenses the material covered in two levels into the time it normally takes to complete one. Homework assignments are an important part of the curriculum. Classes are conducted in Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9016 Italian: Accelerated II and III (0 Credits)

This course is geared toward those who have successfully completed Italian I or the equivalent and would like to move at a faster pace. Classes are conducted entirely in Italian, helping you to speak at an intermediate level with confidence. Grammar is taught in an interactive way using authentic materials and real-life situations. Be challenged to immediately put into practice what you learn in the classroom.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9017 Italian: Accelerated III and IV (0 Credits)

If you have a solid knowledge of Italian language basics (essential vocabulary, verb forms, and basic tenses), or if you have completed Level II and wish to learn at an accelerated pace, then this course is for you. Focus on expanding your vocabulary, mastering more complex grammatical structures, and holding simple conversations. This fast-paced course condenses the material covered in two levels into the time it normally takes to complete one. Homework assignments are an important part of the curriculum. Classes are conducted in Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9033 Italian Grammar and Conversation (3 Credits)

If you already have a good grasp of Italian language fundamentals (essential vocabulary, verb conjugations, basic verb tenses), or if you have completed Level II Italian at this department or its equivalent elsewhere, then this is the right course for you. We will begin the course by reviewing what you already know, strengthening your usages of the same through conversation and writing. Then, we will quickly move on to refine those skills with additional verb tenses and moods, as well as lots of new vocabulary. You will produce various kinds of texts for this class according to different grammar lessons, and your writings and our discussions will tap into many facets of Italian culture through exposure to art, literature, film, and music. We might even take a little field trip or two. Venite, accompagnateci!

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9050 Italian: Intermediate Conversation (0 Credits)

This course is intended for those who have completed Italian III or who have a comparable level of proficiency in the basics of grammar and everyday vocabulary on a wide range of topics. It focuses on developing strong communication skills, expanding vocabulary, and improving grammatical accuracy. Course work includes a variety of group and individual activities, oral presentations, and readings of authentic texts.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9061 Italian: Intensive I (0 Credits)

Learn how to utilize Italian in a self-sufficient manner—and in a variety of communicative situations required in real life. Using fundamental sentence structures in the present and past tenses, practice listening and speaking through simple conversations in which you develop familiar talking points with sufficient clarity. Engage in writing and reading exercises to find specific information and identify unknown words based on context. Sing “Volare” and the Italian national anthem, discuss cuisine and share your favorite Italian recipe, and investigate regions of Italy such as Tuscany, Lazio, and Umbria to discover what makes them truly unique. Upon successful completion of the course, achieve a high-novice level of proficiency.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9062 Italian: Intensive II (0 Credits)

Understand commonly used terminology related to critical topics, including personal and family information, shopping, surroundings, and employment. Communicate more effectively in everyday situations; contrast between the imperfect and past tenses; and become more comfortable with reflexives, imperatives, direct object pronouns, and the idiomatic use of the future tense. Learn to accurately and effectively discuss shopping, eating out, people, and situations; obtain permission; communicate a refusal; and express your needs. Lectures, films, and events at the Italian-American Museum, the Cultural Italian Institute, and the Casa Italiana NYU afford the chance to interact with people who share your interests and your passion for language.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9063 Italian for Professionals I (0 Credits)

This course focuses on Italian for the professional and provides the fundamentals for clear and effective communication in Italian. Taught in Italian to the extent possible, this course is targeted to individual learners' skill levels and interests. Through a variety of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on interaction and participation, you'll build your vocabulary and fluency in the Italian language and your knowledge of Italian culture. With this dynamic and interactive instruction, gain the language skills to engage in simple professional conversations, discussions, and communications in Italian. This course is best suited for beginners. Registering at least two weeks prior to the course start date is highly recommended.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9064 Italian: Intensive IV (0 Credits)

Grammar, reading, writing, and conversation are integrated into an exploration of literary and cultural materials. All aspects of the subjunctive, past conditional, progressive, and remote past tenses are studied with references to the political system, the environment, the media, and the entertainment industry. At the completion of this course, students are able to speak and write with great grammatical precision and fluency.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9065 Italian: Intensive V (3 Credits)

This course focuses on the diverse facets of contemporary Italian culture through the discussion of an array of print and non-print materials, including articles, selected readings, videos, literature, and cinematic texts on contemporary Italian politics and society. These are the starting points for lively discussions in Italian, correlating with advanced vocabulary expansion and review of sophisticated grammatical structures. Also, gain the ability to communicate in and to understand rapidly-spoken Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9071 Italian Through Opera (0 Credits)

Opera originated in 17th-century Italy and has since won millions of fans around the world. Deepen your appreciation of this extraordinary art form and learn Italian at the same time! This course introduces you to the most famous Italian arias through an array of audio and video selections. Class discussions, conducted in Italian, combine close textual analysis with interactive speaking activities that allow you to learn opera-specific vocabulary and to better understand opera's dramatic structures, characters, costumes, settings, and musical styles. In regard to Italian-language study, build your vocabulary, improve your pronunciation, and develop more fluid conversational skills.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9079 Italian: Language and Culture (0 Credits)

If you have completed at least Level II, or the equivalent, of Italian language study, this conversation course will help you to build upon that knowledge. Taught almost entirely in Italian and targeted to individual learners' skill levels, this course focuses on conversational Italian, helping you to activate the knowledge you already have and strengthening your ability to communicate in Italian accurately and effectively. Through a variety of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on interaction and participation, you'll increase your fluency in the Italian language and your knowledge of Italian culture. In this dynamic and interactive course, gain the language skills to engage in conversations and discussions and to communicate with greater ease in Italian. Note: Course content changes every semester, so this course may be taken more than once. Registering at least two weeks prior to the course start date is highly recommended.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9088 Italian for Travelers (0 Credits)

Are you planning a trip to Italy and need a survival kit to help build your confidence before you travel? In this course, you will learn how to speak Italian in practical situations with a full focus on conversation. There will be some grammar, but the goal is to have "in your pocket" phrases ready to use when you need them. Through a mix of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on interaction and participation, you will build your vocabulary and fluency in the Italian language enough to never feel lost while enjoying your visit abroad. You will also practice and train your ears by listening to authentic dialogues. Registering at least two weeks prior to the course start date is highly recommended.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9090 Discovering Italian Through Timely Topics (0 Credits)

If you have never studied Italian, then take this course to develop basic listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in the language. Taught almost entirely in Italian and specifically designed for beginners, this course will offer an introduction to the Italian language through an exploration of engaging, current topics. Learn through a variety of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on student interaction and participation. This course can stand alone, or it can be like an antipasto (which you'll learn how to order!), leaving you hungry for more. Classroom discussion and cultural outings take the language off the page in this dynamic, interactive course. Course content changes every semester, so this course may be taken more than once. Classes are conducted in Italian to the extent possible.

Students are strongly encouraged to register by Wednesday, September 12, 2018 to ensure a seat in the class. Please contact the Department of Foreign Languages at sps.foreignlanguages@nyu.edu with any questions, or call 212-998-7150 to register.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9091 Italian Through Cinema (0 Credits)

Learning Italian through cinema is a fun and interesting way to understand and connect with the society, culture, and history of Italy while learning the language. Films are assigned in advance and encourage students to learn through structured discussion and research on selected material. Some scenes are analyzed in-depth, and the directors are read in class or assigned. This fascinating journey through Italian cinema helps improve grammar and expand vocabulary in an entertaining yet effective way. This course counts toward the certificate.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9801 Italian: Daytime I (0 Credits)

If you have never studied Italian, take this 12-session course to acquire the basic pronunciation, vocabulary, useful expressions, and fundamental grammatical notions that allow for effective communication. Classes are conducted in Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9802 Exploring Italian Through Timely Topics (0 Credits)

If you have taken <https://www.sps.nyu.edu/professional-pathways/courses/ital1-ce9090> or have some prior exposure to Italian, then this course will help you to build upon your Italian language knowledge. Taught almost entirely in Italian and targeted to learners' levels, this course helps you to develop proficiency through a variety of paired, small-group, and whole-class activities that rely on student interaction and participation. Gain the Italian language skills to understand conversations about daily topics, to share information, and to engage in exchanges using natural structures and expressions. This dynamic and interactive course takes the Italian language off the page through lively classroom discussion and cultural outings.

Note: Course content changes every semester, so this course may be taken more than once.

Registering at least two weeks prior to the course start date is highly recommended.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9803 Italian: Daytime III (0 Credits)

This course is designed for students who have completed Italian II in this department, or who have taken a semester of college-level Italian at another institution. Focus on expanding your vocabulary, learning more complex grammatical structures, and having simple conversations. The class is conducted in Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9815 Italian: Daytime Accelerated I and II (0 Credits)

If you have previously studied Italian and want to review the basics, or if you have a strong knowledge of a cognate language, then this is the course for you. This fast-paced course condenses the material covered in two levels into the time it normally takes to complete one. Classes are conducted in Italian.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9825 Italian: Daytime Accelerated I and II, Part A (0 Credits)

If you previously have studied Italian and want to review the basics, or if you have a strong knowledge of a cognate language, then this class is an appropriate next step in your study of Italian. This fast-paced course condenses the material covered in two levels into the time it normally takes to complete one. Homework assignments are an important part of the curriculum.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

ITAL1-CE 9826 Italian: Daytime Accelerated I and II, Part B (0 Credits)

This course builds upon the skills acquired in http://sps.nyu.edu/academics/course_detail.html?id=ITAL1-CE9825 Italian: Daytime Accelerated I and II, Part A. Homework assignments are an important part of the curriculum.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes