JOURNALISM (JW-GY)

JW-GY 6003 Introduction to Technical Communication (3 Credits)
This course is an overview of the research, writing, editing and design principles of technical communication. Particular attention is paid to writing for new media. Students learn to gather, organize and present information effectively, according to audience and purpose. Interviewing skills, technical presentation skills and writing for the Web are covered. | Prerequisite: Adviser's approval.
Grading: Grad Poly Graded
Repeatable for additional credit: No