

MENTORSHIP (MENT1-CE)

MENT1-CE 9001 Professional Mentorship in Design (0 Credits)

Whether you are fine-tuning a new product you have designed, fleshing out a mobile app concept, or preparing a body of creative work for gallery submission, the NYU-SCPS Center for Advanced Digital Applications (CADA) Professional Mentorship in Design program pairs you with a creative professional in the industry to help bring your specific goals to fruition. A mentor who is experienced in your area of interest works closely with you to design a road map for success and to help you acquire the critical skills and tools you need to seize opportunities within the industry. The Professional Mentorship in Design program begins with an intensive group workshop that is supplemented by a series of monthly online meetings with your mentor in addition to guided exchanges through an online forum. Once you have completed this program, you may enroll in Professional Mentorship in Design: Individual Instruction, with departmental approval, which entails additional one-on-one meetings with your mentor.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

MENT1-CE 9002 Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts: Individual Instruction (0 Credits)

Whether you are interested in pitching an animated children's pilot, developing a mobile app, or tightening up your digital portfolio, you can bring your specific career goals to fruition by pairing with a creative professional in the industry through the NYU-SCPS Center for Advanced Digital Applications (CADA) Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts programs. A mentor who is experienced in your area of interest works closely with you to design a road map for success and to help you acquire the critical skills and tools you need to seize opportunities within the industry. Once you have enrolled in or completed Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts, you may register for this course, Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts: Individual Instruction, with departmental approval, which entails additional one-on-one meetings with your instructor.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

MENT1-CE 9003 Professional Mentorship in Digital Film: Individual Instruction (0 Credits)

Whether you are interested in writing, producing, or marketing a digital film, bring your specific career goals to fruition by pairing with a creative professional in the industry through the NYU-SCPS Center for Advanced Digital Applications (CADA) Professional Mentorship in Digital Film programs. A mentor who is experienced in your particular area of interest works closely with you to design a road map for success and to help you acquire the critical skills and tools you need to seize opportunities within the industry. Once you have enrolled in or completed Professional Mentorship in Digital Film, you may register for this course, Professional Mentorship in Digital Film: Individual Instruction, with departmental approval, which entails additional one-on-one meetings with your mentor.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

MENT1-CE 9004 Professional Mentorship in Design: Individual Instruction (0 Credits)

Whether you are fine-tuning a new product you have designed, fleshing out a mobile app concept, or preparing a body of creative work for gallery submission, the NYU-SCPS Center for Advanced Digital Applications (CADA) Professional Mentorship in Design programs pair you with a creative professional in the industry to help bring your specific goals to fruition. A mentor who is experienced in your area of interest works closely with you to design a road map for success and to help you acquire the critical skills and tools you need to seize opportunities within the industry. Once you have enrolled in or completed Professional Mentorship in Design, you may register for this course, Professional Mentorship in Design: Individual Instruction, with departmental approval, which entails additional one-on-one meetings with your mentor.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

MENT1-CE 9005 Professional Mentorship in Digital Film (0 Credits)

Whether you are interested in writing, producing, or marketing a digital film, bring your specific career goals to fruition by pairing with a creative professional in the industry through the NYU-SCPS Center for Advanced Digital Applications (CADA) Professional Mentorship in Digital Film program. A mentor who is experienced in your particular area of interest works closely with you to design a road map for success and to help you acquire the critical skills and tools you need to seize opportunities within the industry. The Professional Mentorship in Digital Film program begins with an intensive group workshop that is supplemented by a series of monthly online meetings with your mentor in addition to guided exchanges through an online forum. Once you have completed this program, you may enroll in Professional Mentorship in Digital Film: Individual Instruction, with departmental approval, which entails additional one-on-one meetings with your mentor.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes

MENT1-CE 9006 Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts (0 Credits)

Whether you are interested in pitching an animated children's pilot, developing a mobile app, or tightening up your digital portfolio, you can bring your specific career goals to fruition by pairing with a creative professional in the industry through the NYU-SCPS Center for Advanced Digital Applications (CADA) Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts program. A mentor who is experienced in your area of interest works closely with you to design a road map for success and to help you acquire the critical skills and tools you need to seize opportunities within the industry. The Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts program begins with an intensive group workshop that is supplemented by a series of monthly online meetings with your mentor in addition to guided exchanges through an online forum. Once you have completed this program, you may enroll in Professional Mentorship in Digital Arts: Individual Instruction, with departmental approval, which entails additional one-on-one meetings with your mentor.

Grading: SPS Non-Credit Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: Yes