MOVI1-CE 9000 Legends of the Silver Screen (0 Credits)

- For more than four decades, Professor Richard Brown has presented his popular course at NYU. A renowned expert on the cinema, as well as a passionate educator, he is a uniquely gifted interviewer who provides his students with an insider's view of the creation of great movies and the stars who make them. His archive of interviews, conducted with some of the world's most beloved and talented film legends, numbers over 2,500.
- This spring, Prof. Brown will offer film lovers a glimpse of the Golden Age of Hollywood. Through selections from his archives (currently housed at the Library of Congress), his new class will feature one-on-one interviews with five of Hollywood's most glamorous stars. Each class will provide an intimate look at the lives and the work of the following film industry giants: Katharine Hepburn, Lauren Bacall, Robert Mitchum, Kim Novak, and Jimmy Stewart.
- Four evenings will you be immersed in a deeply engaging classroom experience, conducted in seminar format and enhanced by clips from classic, as well as lesser-known, films. Prof. Brown will screen his interviews with the show, out takes, and provide revealing anecdotes, engaging the class in lively discussion.
- Prof. Brown invites the star or director or both. Prof. Brown is joined by the featured film's star, director, or both.
