

GLOBAL TRIP (DBIN-GB)

DBIN-GB 3100 DBi: Location TBA (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3103 DBi Argentina (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3110 DBi Costa Rica: Sustainable Business in Latin America (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3111 DBi Italy (Luxury Retail & Branding) (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3112 DBi Ireland (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3113 DBi Hungary / Central and Eastern Europe (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3114 DBi Asia/Pcfc Rim(Vancvr) (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3115 DBi Spain (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3116 DBi Poland / Central and Eastern Europe (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3117 DBi Spain (Barcelona) (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3118 DBi Morocco & North Africa (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3119 DBi Colombia & Latin America (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3120 DBi Germany (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3121 DBi Mexico (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3122 DBi Copenhagen (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3123 DBi Israel (1.5 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3124 DBi France (1.5 Credits)

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3301 Doing Business in Chile (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3302 Doing Business in Copenha (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3303 DBi Argentina (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3304 DBi Australia (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3305 DBi China (Beijing & Shanghai) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3306 Doing Business in Korea (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3307 DBi China (Hong Kong) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3308 DBi India (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3309 DBi Asia (Singapore) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3310 DBi India (Bangalore) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3311 DBi Brazil (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3312 DBi Istanbul: the Economic, Political and Cultural Crossroads of the World (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3313 DBi New Zealand (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: No

DBIN-GB 3314 DBi Israel (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3315 DBi Australia (Sydney) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3316 DBi China (Shanghai) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3317 DBi S. Africa(Johannsborg) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: NoDBIN-GB 3318 DBi South Africa (Cape Town) (3 Credits)Typically offered occasionally*

The Doing Business in (DBi) Program provides students with the opportunity to gain international experience in a rapidly changing global economy. DBi courses are offered in either a one (1.5 credits) or two-week (3 credits) intensive format during traditional academic break periods. A limited number of credits earned may be applied to the Global Business specialization, and some DBi course credits for specific courses may be applied to other specializations as noted on OSE's CampusGroups website. In addition to Stern tuition, a DBi Program Fee is required and covers the costs of double-occupancy housing, some excursions, and some meals as detailed in the individual course syllabus. For more details about specific courses including tentative schedule components, visit the Courses and Syllabi section on OSE's CampusGroups website at https://nyustern.campusgroups.com/ose/doing-business-in-\(dbi\)-program/-program/).

Grading: Grad Stern GradedRepeatable for additional credit: No