Program Description

For high-potential executives around the world, the TRIUM Global Executive MBA Program offers an authentically global curriculum as a result of an innovative alliance among New York University Stern School of Business (NYU Stern); the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE); and HEC School of Management, Paris (HEC Paris). Graduates earn a single MBA degree, jointly issued by all three sponsoring schools.

The TRIUM Global Executive MBA Program is the only MBA program to blend the complementary strengths of three renowned universities and five international learning locations, as well as handpicked top-ranked faculty from each school, to teach at their home campuses, ensuring an academically rigorous and genuinely globally focused program. Through the participation of the LSE, the TRIUM Global MBA Program integrates international economic, political, and social policy into the traditional business curriculum. NYU Stern brings its strength in finance and global business to the curriculum and HEC incorporates its expertise in management and corporate alliances in today's integrated, yet diverse marketplace.

Admissions

TRIUM is a rigorous program for high-potential executives from around the world. It requires intense concentration and a serious commitment for 18 months. Admitted participants benefit from the opportunity to pursue their MBA in a cohort of peers from countries around the globe. A minimum of 10 years of full-time professional work experience is required. Typical applicants include executives with global responsibilities, professionals interested in pursuing international positions within their firms or entrepreneurs looking to diversify their business opportunities. Additional factors on which the Admissions Committee bases its decision include the following:

- Record of professional success
- Employment profile and managerial experience and future potential
- International experience
- Selection interview
- Written essays
- Official transcripts (professionally translated into English, if degrees were earned from non-English-speaking institutions)
- Two Recommendations
- TOEFL/IELTS or TOEIC (if applicable)
- GMAT or GRE (if the applicant has less than 15 years of professional experience)

The TRIUM Admissions Committee comprises representatives from all three schools, and admissions decisions will be made jointly and must be unanimous. Applicants interested in obtaining further information about TRIUM prior to applying may request an informational interview or attend an informational session, which are held at various locations around the world.

Before submitting a formal application, applicants are required to submit a Preliminary Information Form, available online at <https://www.triumba.org/admissions/preliminary-application> (<https://www.triumba.org/admissions/preliminary-application/>) and/or an updated C.V./Résumé to info@triumba.org.

To apply, applicants may submit an online application through the TRIUM customized, interactive, online application system, found at <https://nyu-trium.embark.com/login/apply> (<https://nyu-trium.embark.com/login/apply/>). Only applicants who submit a formal application will be eligible for an invitation to a selection interview, at the discretion of the Admissions Committee. Admission to the TRIUM Executive MBA Program follows a rolling schedule, and applications will be reviewed as they are received.

A nonrefundable application fee of US$250 is required. The program fee for TRIUM for the Class of 2024 is US$194,550 and includes tuition, lodging in the guest module locations, lunch and group dinners, books, and materials. Accepted applicants who enroll in TRIUM for the Class of 2024 must deposit US$18,000 to reserve a place in the program. The deposit is nonrefundable, but it will be applied to the program fee.
