

CO-OP EDUCATION PROGRAM (CP-GY)

---

CP-GY 5990 Internship Seminar (0 Credits)

Internship Seminar provides career development, job search basics and resume development in a seminar setting, arranged with the Wasserman Center for Career Development. This course is open to both undergraduate and graduate students.

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No

CP-GY 9911 Internship for MS I (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

Internship is a supervised, creative experience that provides full-time graduate students with the opportunity to enhance and augment classroom learning experiences in their field of study. The experience culminates in written reports, from the student, to the faculty supervisors as well as written reports from the supervisor. | Prerequisites: Advisor's approval.

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No

CP-GY 9921 Internship for MS II (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

Internship is a supervised, creative experience that provides full-time graduate students with the opportunity to enhance and augment classroom learning experiences in their field of study. The experience culminates in written reports, from the student, to the faculty supervisors as well as written reports from the supervisor. | Prerequisites: Advisor's approval and CP-GY 9911

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No

CP-GY 9941 Internship for PhD I (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

Internship is a supervised, creative experience that provides full-time graduate students with the opportunity to enhance and augment classroom learning experiences in their field of study. The experience culminates in written reports, from the student, to the faculty supervisors as well as written reports from the supervisor. | Prerequisites: Advisor's approval

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No

CP-GY 9951 Internship for PhD II (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

Internship is a supervised, creative experience that provides full-time graduate students with the opportunity to enhance and augment classroom learning experiences in their field of study. The experience culminates in written reports, from the student, to the faculty supervisors as well as written reports from the supervisor. | Prerequisites: Advisor's approval and CP-GY 9941

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No

CP-GY 9961 Internship for PhD III (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

Internship is a supervised, creative experience that provides full-time graduate students with the opportunity to enhance and augment classroom learning experiences in their field of study. The experience culminates in written reports, from the student, to the faculty supervisors as well as written reports from the supervisor. | Prerequisites: Advisor's approval and CP-GY 9951

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No

CP-GY 9971 Internship for PhD IV (1.5 Credits)

Typically offered occasionally

Internship is a supervised, creative experience that provides full-time graduate students with the opportunity to enhance and augment classroom learning experiences in their field of study. The experience culminates in written reports, from the student, to the faculty supervisors as well as written reports from the supervisor. | Prerequisites: Advisor's approval and CP-GY 9961

Grading: Grad Poly Pass/Fail

Repeatable for additional credit: No