

REGISTRATION

Gallatin's Office of Student Services provides information, instructions, and personal registration assistance. After completing the registration process, students should bookmark the NYU Academic Calendar (<https://www.nyu.edu/students/student-information-and-resources/registration-records-and-graduation/academic-calendar.html>) for the term, and make note of the academic and financial deadlines. Each semester, students will receive information regarding registration for each term from the Office of the Registrar via their NYU email account. Registration becomes available to continuing students as follows:

- Fall registration begins mid April
- January term registration begins late October
- Spring registration begins mid November
- Summer registration begins early February

See Registration (<https://gallatin.nyu.edu/academics/registration.html>) for more information.
