Budget Appeal Process for Current MD Students

For students who have educational expenses that exceed our estimated cost of attendance as listed above, we have a budget appeal process that may qualify you for an increase to your cost of attendance. The budget appeal process is available for those students who need additional unsubsidized loans.

Our office can assist you with the application and advise you on what supporting documentation is required based on your reasons for appeal. Once your budget appeal is completed, it should be sent directly to NYU Grossman's financial aid office for initial review. Once our office determines your appeal is complete, we will then submit it for review with our appeal committee at Washington Square. Once a decision is reached, our financial aid office will notify you.

To set up a virtual meeting or phone call to discuss this process, please contact us at FinAid@NYULangone.org.
