Research and Academic Center

Located at 101 Mineola Boulevard, the Research and Academic Center houses the primary educational teaching spaces for the MD program, spanning the first, second, and third floors. Each space is designed to foster an optimal learning environment. The general hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., with 24/7 badge access for authorized users.

- Student Learning Studio: A versatile area featuring classrooms, desk stations, group study rooms, and a relaxation lounge. This setup fosters both collaborative projects and individual study.
- Structures Lab: A key venue for lectures on foundational sciences such as biology, anatomy, and physiology, equipped with modern teaching tools.
- Simulation Center (<https://medli.nyu.edu/education/simulation-center/>): Provides high-tech, realistic simulations in a safe learning environment, allowing students to hone their clinical skills effectively.
- William C. Hollis Health Sciences Library (<https://hsl.med.nyu.edu/libraries/william-c-hollis-health-sciences-library-nyu-long-island/>): Supports the community's educational, clinical, and research needs with a vast array of resources. Staffed from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and offers 24-hour access to students via badge entry. The library digital portal provides access to its catalog, databases, and research guides.

NYU Langone Hospital—Long Island

This 591-bed medical center (<https://nyulangone.org/locations/nyu-langone-hospital-long-island/#visit>), located at 259 First Street, Mineola, NY, operates 24/7, serving as the primary clinical education site for students. While the hospital remains open, visiting hours (<https://nyulangone.org/patient-family-support/visitor-information/>) are specifically tailored to ensure patient care and privacy.

- Student Clinical Locker Room: Provides secure storage for personal belongings, ensuring privacy and safety.
- Student Clinical Lounge: Equipped with a desk station and comfortable seating, it is an ideal place for students to study or for relaxation between shifts.

Computer Lab

At 211 Station Road, the computer lab is equipped with state-of-the-art technology to support a wide range of educational activities, including student exams and in-service needs. The lab is accessible from 5 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday with badge access for authorized users. When reserved for specific exams or classes, it is not accessible; reservations outside of these times can be made by contacting medi.ome@nyulangone.org.
