DRAMATIC LITERATURE, THEATRE HISTORY, AND CINEMA (MINOR)

Program Description
The program in dramatic literature offers students the opportunity to specialize in the critical, theoretical, literary, and historical aspects of theatre studies. In addition to courses offered each semester by the program's core faculty in the Department of English, students take classes on theatre, drama, and performance in departments and schools throughout NYU, including practice-based courses. Students engage with works and traditions of drama and theatre dating from ancient times to the present, and take advantage of New York's incomparably rich theatre landscape. An honors program is available for qualified students.

Minor Declaration
To request declaration of a minor, CAS students should visit the host department. To request declaration of a cross-school minor, CAS students should complete the online Minor Application available in their Albert Student Center. Students may also use the Minor Application (http://www.nyu.edu/students/student-information-and-resources/registration-records-and-graduation/registration.html) in Albert to request cancellation of a CAS or cross-school minor.

Program Requirements
The minor requires the completion of 16 credits (4 courses) offered by the program. Only two of the four may be in the areas of cinema and practical theatre combined. See the course offerings website (https://cas.nyu.edu/academic-programs/bulletin/departments-and-programs/majors/minor-in-dramatic-literature/course-offerings.html) for a list of course offerings for this program.
