

PERFORMANCE STUDIES (MINOR)

Department Website (<https://tisch.nyu.edu/special-programs/>)

Program Description

Take an international and interdisciplinary approach to performance. Look at performance practices and events of different cultures around the world. What impact do they have on daily life and how do they shape the social and political landscape of that culture? Investigate the field of performance studies and its connections to other disciplines such as anthropology, theatre studies, philosophy, feminism, critical race theory, and more. You will analyze everything from theatrical performances to cultural and religious rituals. With peers from different academic backgrounds, you will explore chosen topics together using a variety of skillsets from a variety of perspectives.

Minor Declaration

To request a minor be added or removed from your record please use your Albert Student Center. Click on the Academics tab, and then click Minor Application under Planning Tools. New First Year and Transfer students should wait to declare minors toward the end of their first academic year and after discussing it with their academic advisor.

Policies

Program Policies

Grades

All students declaring a Minor must receive a grade of C or above in order to have the course count towards a Tisch Minor.

Course Allocations

There are no course substitutions allowed for the minor. All courses must be PERF-UT courses.

As of spring 2015, regarding double-counting of courses for Tisch students: students who have any combination of Tisch majors/minors will only be permitted to count one course towards both areas. Tisch minor courses can be double-counted between two Tisch minors. For all other NYU students, students' should follow their home school academic policies.
