

LATIN AMERICAN CULTURES- GLOBAL CULTURES (LAGC-UF)

LAGC-UF 101 Latin American Cultures (4 Credits)

Typically offered Fall, Spring, and Summer terms

This course is intended to give a general view of the great diversity in the areas south of the United States. Given the influences of Europe, the United States, Africa and indigenous Indian cultures on the region's varied cultures and societies, the course may cover different topics and time periods, such as the historical background to the social, political, economic, and/or ethnological issues of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries; the course may also explore the artistic developments in different countries and their relationship to larger social structures.

Grading: FAS Graded

Repeatable for additional credit: No
