

FACILITIES

Brause Library

Jack Brause Library for Real Estate (<https://guides.nyu.edu/jackbrauselibrary/>)

NYU Midtown Center
11 W 42nd Street, 5th Floor, Room 510
New York, NY 10036

The Jack Brause Library is located at the NYU Midtown Center, which is home to many graduate programs within the School of Professional Studies (SPS). Access is available for NYU students, faculty, and staff to the e-resources and select services available via NYU Libraries as well as access to a unique collection of electronic and print resources that support the SPS Schack Institute of Real Estate.

Brause Library's spaces include the reading room, two group study rooms, and the Brause Family Learning Commons.

Hospitality Innovation Hub

The Tisch Center of Hospitality Innovation Hub (HI Hub) (<https://www.sps.nyu.edu/homepage/academics/divisions-and-departments/jonathan-m-tisch-center-of-hospitality/hospitality-innovation-hub.html>) fosters entrepreneurship, experiential learning, and creative solutions across the industries SPS serves. State-of-the-art facilities with innovative software and tech offer students, start-ups, and industry partners a place to learn and grow.

AI Instructional Space

The Emerging Technologies Collaborative (<https://www.sps.nyu.edu/homepage/emerging-technologies-collaborative.html>) at NYU SPS (formerly the Metaverse Collaborative) is a cross-industry initiative designed to prepare our students and industry partners to succeed with emerging technologies. We provide experiences and opportunities to explore, experiment, and lead in the convergence of the physical, digital, and virtual worlds impacting today's global industries, professions, communities, and life as we know it.

Studying in New York City

The NYU School of Professional Studies is located at the center of one of the world's most cosmopolitan cities. The School's academic programs, faculty members, events, and student body reflect NYC and all that it has to offer. Instructors are leading experts in their fields who connect students with key industry sectors and provide a wealth of local, national, and international contacts. From the arts to business to global affairs and much more, the NYU School of Professional Studies offers an education that is truly relevant in its application to the City and the world beyond.

The City As The Classroom

Field trips, industry events, and offsite lectures are all part of the NYU School of Professional Studies experience. Each of these is designed to immerse you in the City and allow you to take full advantage of all of its resources. Visit the UN through the Center for Global Affairs, get a glimpse of the behind-the-scenes operations at a major NYC sports facility with the Tisch Institute, or learn about art appraisal at the Met Museum.