

SPORT MANAGEMENT (MINOR)

Department Website (<https://www.sps.nyu.edu/content/sps-nyu/explore-degrees-and-programs/minor-in-sport-management.html>)

Program Description

New York City is home to major sport properties, including professional sport leagues and teams, and marketing and management firms like Octagon and CSM Sport & Entertainment. In addition to major facilities like the Barclays Center and Madison Square Garden, there are also sport non-profits, minor league teams, sport event management firms, high school, parks and recreation, and other organizations in the industry. The minor in Sport Management provides a foundation in the business aspects of sport. In addition to required coursework in sports management, students take electives from specialization areas that deepen their knowledge base and understanding of these industries.

Please note: these minors are only open to SPS, Steinhardt, and Gallatin students. To declare the minor, students should consult the advising team at tisch.institute@nyu.edu.
